While a cold bath causes a certain stiffness of the muscles if continued too long, a warm bath re-lieves stiffness and fatigue. The final effect of both hot and cold baths, if their temperature be moderate, is the same, the difference being, to use the words of Braun, that "cold refreshes by stimulating the func-tions, heat by physically facilitating them, and in this lies the important differences between the cold water system and the thermal mode of treatment."

How Can You Tell a Good Cigar Roston Transcript

They used to say that a good cigar could be known by the light brown specks on it. These were made by worms, the story was, and he worms were epicures in tobacco and would touch only the best; but the chemists soon found a way of simulating these worm specks. So that spoiled the test. Then there was no other guide but the ashes. If they burned white the cigar was good, if not, bad. But the enterprising tobacconist soon found a way to make the vilest cabbagenia burn as spotlessly white as the best Havana. Another test gone. Finally, the makers of choice cigars put a little red label around each. This was thought to be something which would always be a sure guide, and so it would be, but unfortunatey some of the manufacturers have, by a strange mistake, put the labels on the cabbagenias as well as the assembled at the court house on Saturday evening last, under the auspices of the Decatur Land League, to hear the promised address by Hon T M Healey, of the county Wexford, Ireland The distinguished visitor from over the ocean arriv ed in the city from Clinton at 5 30 o'clock, and was escorted to apartments at the St Nicholas Hetel, and was accompanied to the place of the meeting by Hon W E Nelson, Mr John McEvoy, Mr T J Muleady, Mr Patrick Hickey, and others The meeting was called to order by Mr. Muleady, and Mr Nelson was chosen chairman He introduced Mr Healey in a few well chosen words, when the stranger commenced the delivery of his ad dress in a plain, conversational style. He spoke for over an hour, and detailed minutely the present condition of the oppressed tenantry of Ireland Other speakers who have visited our city have told about the same sad story of the wrongs and demands of the Irish people, and the substance of their remarks have appeared in these columns. Mr Healev stated that 600,000 people of Ireland are in the power of 10,000 landlords, and it is from the grip of these 10,000 heartless landlords that the struggling people of Ireland are trying to free themselves --The people, by oppressive English laws, have been forced to say, "We will not pay another cent of rent until we secure our liberty," and thus the matter stands in Ireland to day. The speaker detailed annumerable personal experiences and heartily applauded by the assembly. The meeting which was a great success, end At the close of the meeting the follow
